

NTT Urban Development Co.

May 8, 2013

NTT Urban Development Corporation

Notice of Establishment of Representative Office in Singapore

NTT Urban Development Corporation (head office: Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo, President and CEO: Masaki Mitsumura) has been promoting and expanding its global business, establishing local subsidiaries in the United Kingdom and Australia. It has now established a representative office in Singapore as its information base for the Asian market.

Singapore, a center for industries including the real estate sector, is highly recognized as an information hub in the Asian market and is characterized by its convenient access to neighboring countries. Regarding the representative office in Singapore as an operating base in Asia, the Corporation will gather information and exploit business opportunities to further develop its global business.

■ Overview of the Representative Office in Singapore

Address	20 West Pasir Panjang Road, #11-28 Mapletree Business City, Singapore
Name	NTT Urban Development Corporation Singapore Representative Office
Representative	Seiji Okinaga
Business	Research and information gathering on market trends and trends in business operators, including those in the real estate industry, and the exploitation of business opportunities, etc.
Date of establishment	April 18, 2013